

Aku-Aku means guardian spirit to the natives of Easter Island in the Southeast Pacific - the loneliest inhabited island in the world. On this barren and isolated island men of mystery built huge stone images - and then disappeared. Tho Heyerdahl, famous leader of the Kon-Tiki expedition wanted to no why. Through the excavations on Easter Island he discovered amazing facts about this lost civilization. In Aku-Aku he tells the whole, completely absorbing story. (From the Back Cover)
