

This is the first book on enduring Hollywood star Eleanor Parker, long underrated despite three best actress Academy Award nominations (Caged, 1950; Detective Story, 1951; Interrupted Melody, 1955). Parker was a beauty as well as a versatile actress, and her achievements approach those of more publicized colleagues Bette Davis and Katharine Hepburn. With Parkers blessing and her son Paul Clemens cooperation, Doug McClelland has written one of the most thorough examinations of a film stars career. The book is valuable to librarians, academics, and film enthusiasts for its extensive documentation and analyses of all of Parkers work, for the bibliographies of her coverage in books and periodicals, for the portrait of a glamorous, creative era in filmmaking, and for the insights into the careers of Eleanor Parkers associates, many among the most heavily researched motion picture artists of cinemas Golden Age. The book contains a forward by noted screenwriter William Ludwig, who won an Academy Award for Parkers Interrupted Melody, and afterword by Marjorie Lawrence, the opera singer whom Parker portrayed in Interrupted Melody, and photos of Eleanor Parker that show her in many of her thousand faces.
